A
Kaleidoscope of students
Prepared to create a Kaleidoscope of lives.

*Our aims and our interests,
All so different,
Will be achieved and fulfilled
in the nursing profession.*

*Together
We have sought-*

the sharing of our laughter,

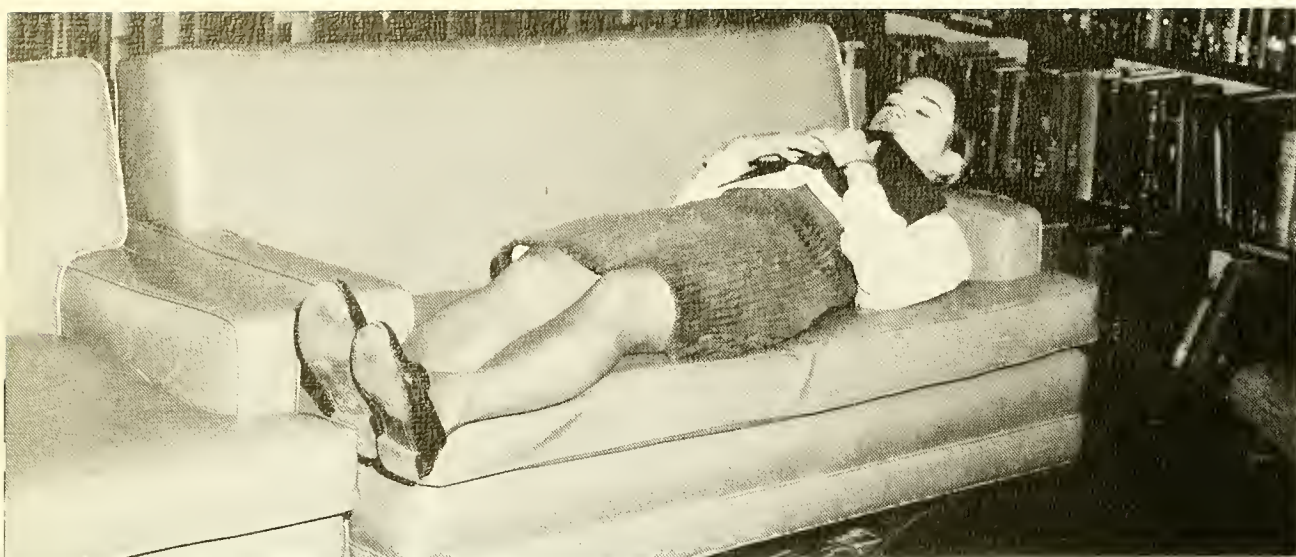

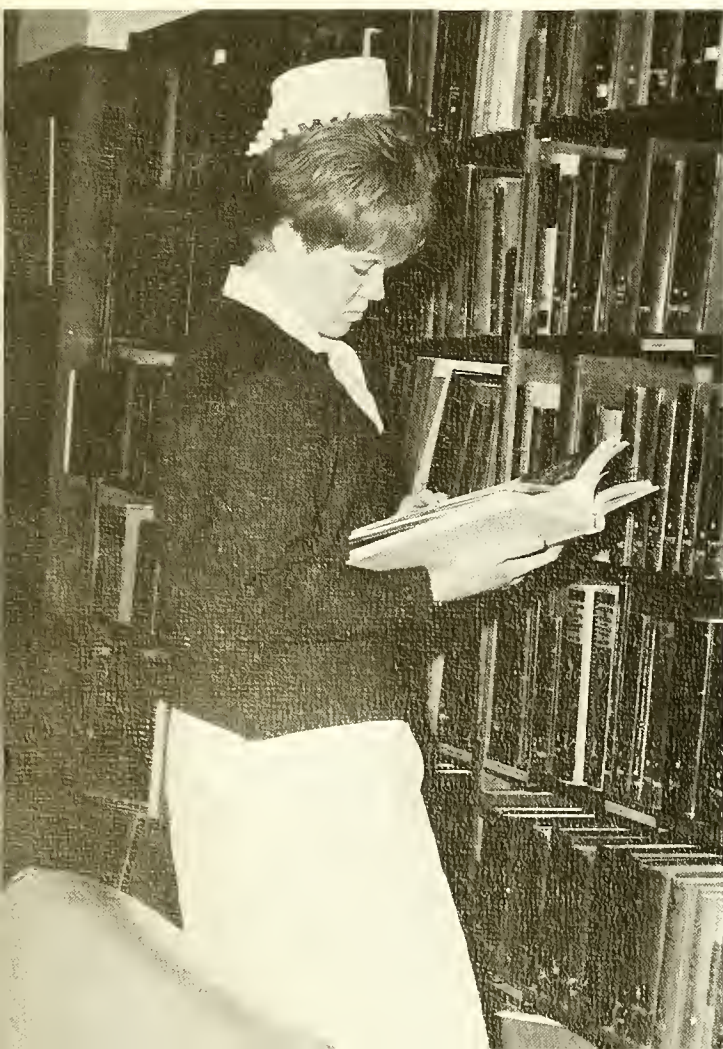

the wonder of our experiences,

the comfort for our tears.

*In solitude
We have sought
the depth of our dreams,*

the knowledge of our giant shelves,

the courage for our lives.

"And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing."

Trish Helm

We dedicate the 1968 Pledge to LTC Iladene F. Filer in grateful appreciation for the tangible and intangible which she gave to each and every one of us in time, trust, and devotion. Her unswerving faith in what we were and what we could do was singularly instrumental in making us what we are today and what we will be tomorrow—the 1968 WRAIN Class of the University of Maryland School of Nursing.

Dr. Theodore Woodward is internationally acclaimed for his contributions to the investigation of significant problems in the area of infectious diseases, world health, internal medicine and medical education. He has brought these experiences to us and made us feel a part of them.

Dr. Woodward has made learning a delightful experience. He has the gift of being able to make the complex and intangible very practical and real. His ideas are expressed in a very humorous and thought provoking manner. He has given us one more thing which is perhaps the most important—his greatest gift to us has been his personal charm which made each of us feel we are essential and valuable persons.

With respect and gratitude we dedicate the 1968 Pledge to Dr. Theodore Woodward.

A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops.

Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Those Med-Surg evaluations are something else!

Mrs. Harboe, please, I'd rather do it myself!

"Is it five pumps to one breath or five breaths to one pump?"

"Now, if this knot will only hold . . ."

JUNIOR MEDICAL-SURGICAL NURSING

Tomorrow and Tomorrow and Tomorrow . . .

"And after we finish taking this, we will cough."

Don't worry girls you will have a chance to play with the instruments too.

"Well, actually girls traction isn't so difficult to understand."

Well adjusted, you can't be. My instructor just won't have it!

"Now where did you say the dressing is I'm supposed to change?"

"Oh, darn that bubble!"

Nursing can be fun.

That must have been some lecture!

"Sir, are you SURE you're feeling OK?"

Our Team Leader helps set the confusion of our day straight.

That doctor told you what?

PEDIATRICS

Children change their world each day depending on the mood of play.

Who says blonds have more fun?

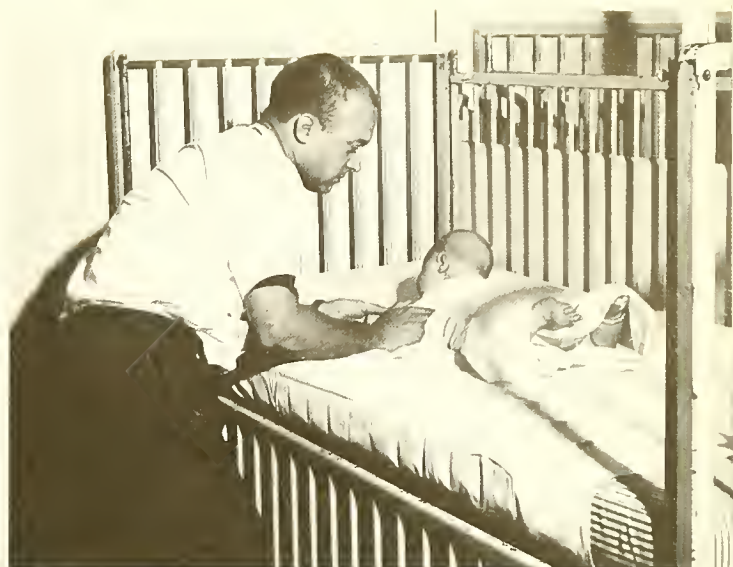

Miss Hull, your technique was very good, however, this is an oral thermometer.

He's gotta be kidding! Is this guy for real?

Lord o' mercy, did I say that I didn't believe in witches?

Don't take it so hard chum, we'll go to Ruth's another night.

My hot dog was sure good. How were your string beans?

"I wish I had one of my own."

"Oh, come on, start dripping."

"But what am I going to do with a pot holder?"

Happiness is having your own student nurse.

"But, I don't like spinach!"

Boy these playladies have some wierd ideas!

Good things come in small packages.

We assure you that experience in breast feeding is the only way.

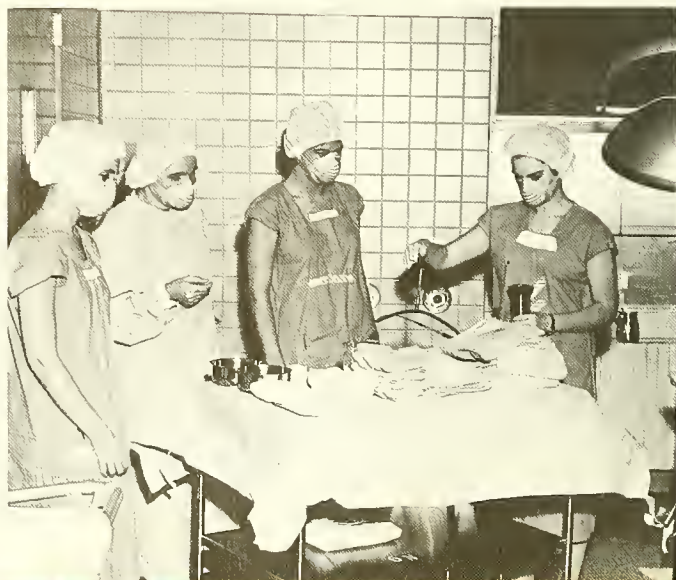

You say you know how to bathe a baby? . . . Oh, this is your eighth.

Do you really mean the umbilicus is midline and three finger breadths below the fundus??

Why are you resting your hand on the sterile gowns?

OBSTETRICS

Flow, flow, flow, the current of life is ever onward.

Now it's decided; the torture, I mean LESSON plans for tomorrow are . . .

Oh, you're such a cute little thing; I bet you have dirty diapers.

We frequently feel firm fundi!

No, Mrs. Linthicum, you can't have anesthesia yet. You're only 2 cms. Besides, you said you wanted Natural Childbirth.

"But, it's so small . . ."

The reflection of motherhood.

A chance to sit down at last!

"... And this goes here . . ."

"I don't know how they ever do it with a real baby!"

Sigh, I wish I had a student nurse . . .

"(Chuckle) She doesn't know, but I don't have a blood pressure!"

You LOST weight!!!

"Let's see . . . Is that the P wave or the Q wave?"

SENIOR MEDICAL-SURGICAL NURSING

*Today well-lived . . .
makes every yesterday a dream of happiness . . .
And tomorrow a vision of hope.*

Planning, organizing, directing, and evaluating — it's never over!

The joys and headaches of ward management.

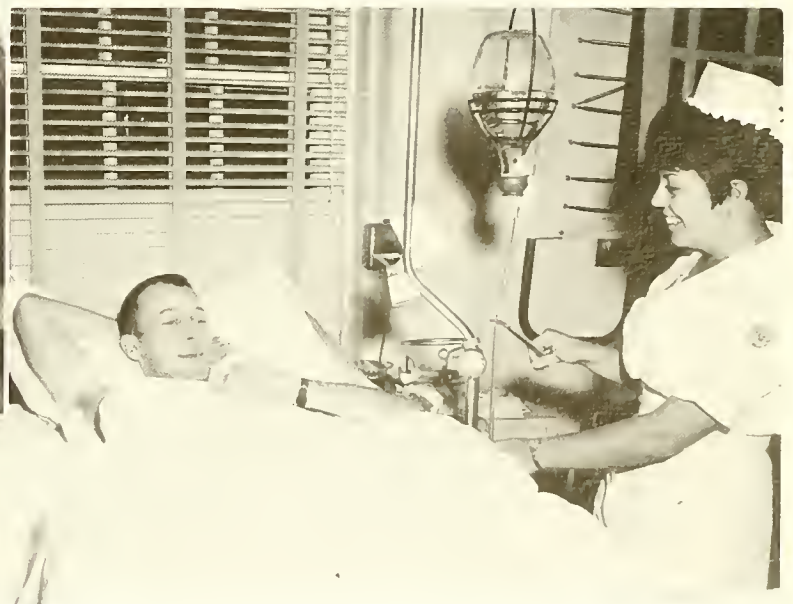

Come on, you're not trying hard enough.

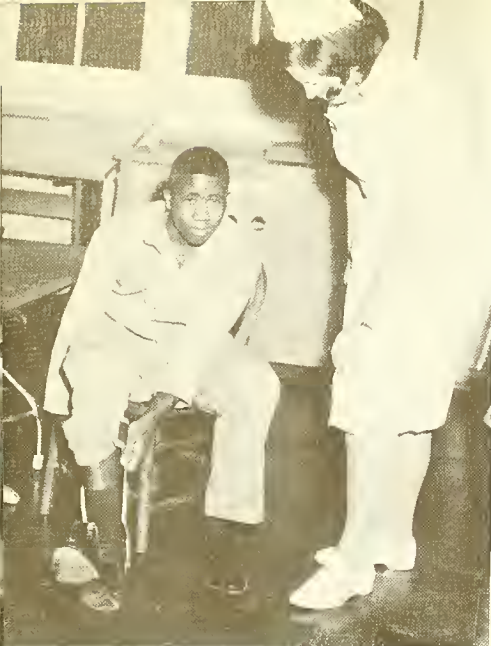

Independence is the key word.

The blind leading the blind.

A private joke??!!

"Can I show you something in a brown loafer?"

"What do you mean you don't have any problems??"

Paperwork, paperwork, paperwork.

REHAB AND INTENSIVE

Helping the patient help himself is an important part of occupational therapy.

The only good germ is a dead germ!

One of the rare moments — a sit down break.

CARE

Tender, loving care.

"I wonder how long this is supposed to last?"

She's forever blowing bubbles.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest of them all?

Re

Diversional therapy is an important part of rehabilitation; but, diversional therapy for whom, the nurses or the patients?

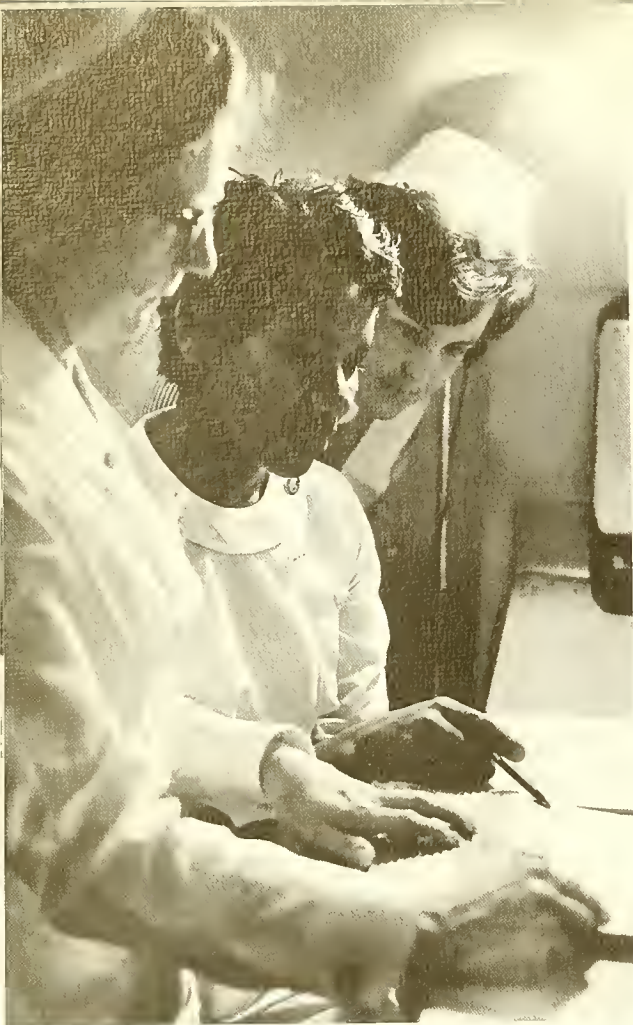

Practicing for the weekend, Miss Kahler?

habilitation

Today's lesson: "Wheelchair Navigation" or "How Rehab Students Took Up Dodgem Cars."

Greek I—Elementary Translation.

Team conferences solve all problems.

Unit Management

B.W.? Why that means milk of magnesia 30cc and cascara 5cc every night.

Miss Headrick, I told you it wouldn't hold 10 cc.

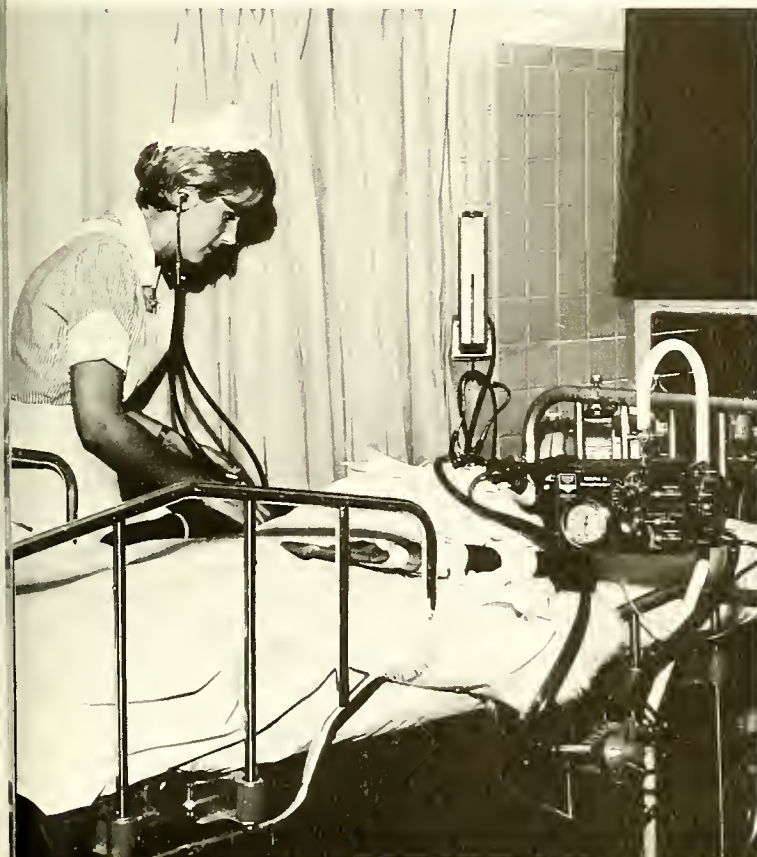

Intensive Care Nursing

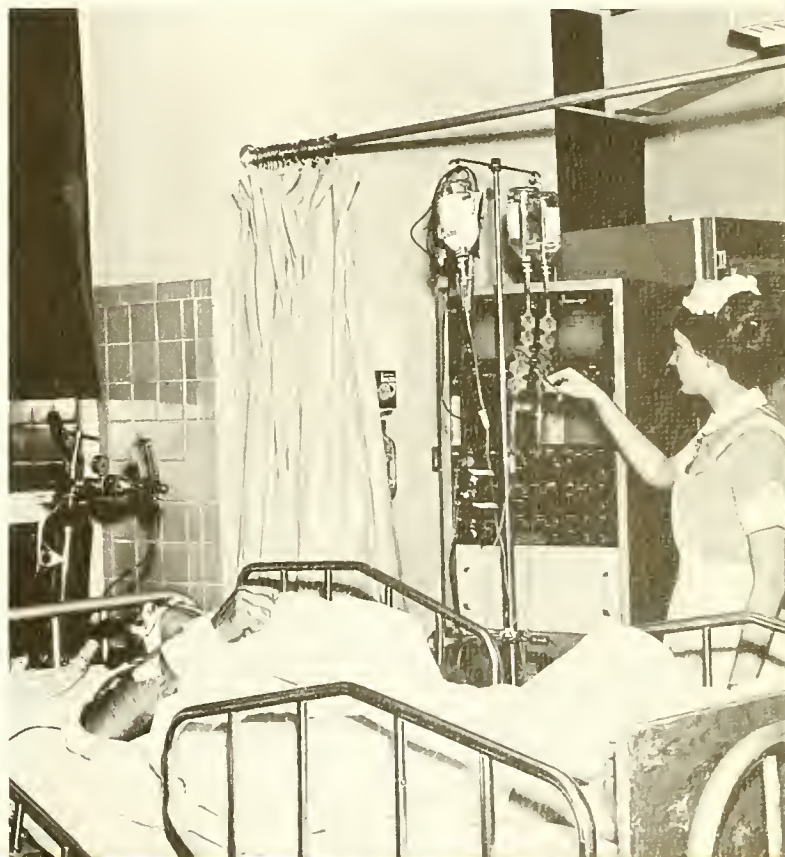

Look, I know you did it!

"Wish I knew what I was doing."

OK, Fellabaum, now try it with the BP cuff on.

I'd better slow these fluids down — he has already had his quota for the next day.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Neither rain

nor sleet

nor hail . . .

And you say that you have five more in school?

Oh, to be in Public Health in the Spring!

I wonder how many miles that is?

"Go play with the bag, dear."

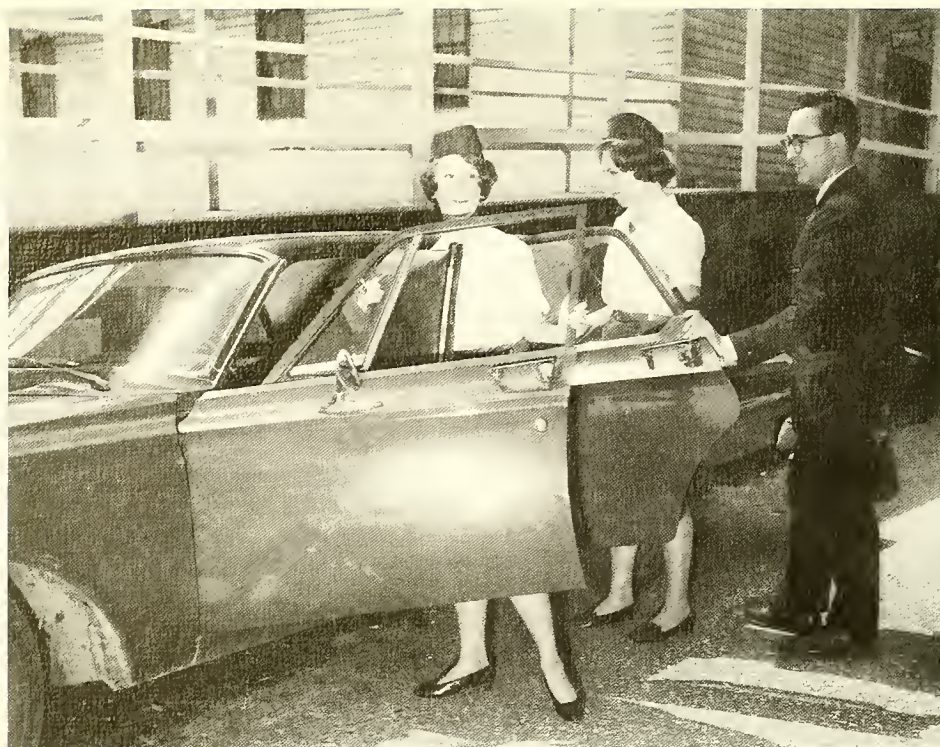

She gave the wrong phone number!

Another day, another mile or two . . .

Learning to make staff cars run is a course itself!

Remember this, the benefit of your work may not be evident until long after you're gone.

We'll take this matter up in depth in the linen closet.

PSYCHIATRY

Cleanse the stuff'd bosom of that perilous stuff

"Now girls, I'm not trying to tell you all to go into psychiatric nursing, but when you write your master's thesis . . ."

I still come and will remain for as long as you need me — though you may not love me.
The wanting and loving will remain,

So that's who's been "borrowing" our food!

The American Gothic!

The position of a new nurse in the hospital caste system???

I see jungles, dense forest, rice paddies, and hand grenades.

The hands that care for the sick?

Old nurses never die, they just look that way!

FACULTY FOLLIES

Keep the lamp lit, baby.

Good nutrition is . . .

It isn't every day that we get to laugh at the faculty.

I have my cape; all I need now is a phone booth.

A good nurse must always have organizational abilities.

WRAIN DROPS

The juniors respond to Nursing 7.

Every child must be "cuddled."

Just a matter of time . . .

A break in a busy schedule.

The card sharks of Delano Hall???

Remember the trip on the Potomac?

HOMECOMING

Honest, it's only coke.

Dianne Elliott, Homecoming Queen.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Yeah, and witches ain't the only bad things we've got up here.

I put my thumb where and do what with my index finger???

CAP FLUTING

"Keep looking Trish, we must be off tomorrow!"

"Group therapy"

Look! No matter what you do — we are not going back to Nursing School!

Problem solving: who gets the bed and who gets the floor.

"Girl's Night In" . . . Rock n' Sock!

Nothing like a "good cup of coffee" after class.

The night before the morning after.

"Mrs. Evans, after all it is Thursday night, and it's only 12:15."

Yipee doo — my buzzer finally went off!

"What do you mean, I forgot to sign out?"

36?!!!

Exercising can be fun.

*The codfish lays ten thousand eggs,
The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles to tell you what she's done
And so we scorn the codfish,
While the humble hen we prize,
which only goes to show you
That it pays to advertise.*

EPILOGUE

To each of us our years in nursing have had a particular, if not uniquely individual, meaning. However, in becoming a professional nurse, we have achieved a common goal. Together we form a Kaleidoscope of different backgrounds, interests, ambitions and experiences. Throughout the PLEDGE we have tried to present this Kaleidoscope World of Nursing.

Publishing a yearbook is, in itself, a challenging task and when the staff is separated by the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, it becomes even more challenging. The "hot-line" between the Baltimore and Walter Reed campuses was life-saving at many times.

This yearbook would not have been possible without the cooperation of the entire staff who gave up many Saturday mornings so that the PLEDGE could be compiled and coordinated. To our Business Managers, Shirley Fellabaum and Chriss Coons, we extend a special thanks.

To you, Mrs. Sligar and Maj. Michael, we say a most sincere "thank you." Without your unfailing support, advice and encouragement our task would have been far more difficult.

We are also grateful for the assistance provided to us by the Hillcrest Studio photographers, Mr. Louis Spear and Mr. John Eurich, and by the Public Information Office of the Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Finally, we would like to thank Mr. John Isleib, Hunter Publishing Company representative, for his professional guidance in planning this yearbook.

We hope that the 1968 PLEDGE is representative of each of you and that in future years you can look back and remember.
